Morgan's Guerrillas at Elizabethtown.

After the exploits of John Morgan near Bardonia, he left in the direction of Boston. During the night, or early yesterday morning, his forces turned up at Union Station, two miles this side of Elizabethtown. Here he destroyed a cattle-crossing or covered. Meantime he had detached a force to Muldraugh's Hill to cut the telegraphic wires. His main force left for Elizabethtown. They did not tarry long, but proceeded toward Munfordsville. At Valley Creek No. 3, forty-five miles from our city, they destroyed a small bridge.

Our forces were detained, and by the time the road at Union Station was repaired so that our trains loaded with soldiers could proceed, Morgan's gang was gone.

The freight and passenger trains which left Munfordsville yesterday afternoon were ordered back. Our forces will meet them in front from Bowlinggreen, while our advancing forces will press down the road. No damage beyond that mentioned above was committed along the line of the railroad.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Oct. 21. Kate O'Brien, drunk and disorderly conduct; bail in $100 for two months.

John Coker alias Jack Nobb, charged with cutting and stabbing C. H. Wilson, in a sudden heat of passion, and without previous malice; bail in $150 to answer a misdemeanor.

Thomas McCallister, charged with stealing a coat worth over four dollars; case continued until to-morrow morning.

John McCunn, drunk and disorderly conduct; bail in $500 for three months.

LIEUT. S. D. SMITH.—Mr. L. G. Smith, of Rockport, Ind., is in the city in search of his brother, Lieut. S. D. Smith, Company C, 42d Ind., who was wounded in the battle of Perryville and brought to this city, and is said to be in a private home somewhere in the vicinity of the Galt House.

Information may be left with H. Verboef & Co., on Fourth street, between Main and the river, or at this office.

The death of Lieut. Williams, of the Provost Guard, created a vacancy in company H, which was supplied Monday by the election of the Orderly Sergeant to the Second Lieutenant, and Second Sergeant A. R. Sharpe was elected Orderly Sergeant of the company.

Two prisoners escaped from the Military Prison on Sunday night, one of whom was charged with having seventeen stolen Government mules in his possession, and the other having been guilty of aiding the rebellion.

A small gray horse attached to an open-top buggy, belonging to Mr. Ricketts, was taken away from the corner of First and Main streets Monday afternoon; any information concerning him may be left there.

The train over the Louisville and Nashville Railroad will leave the depot at 8 o'clock this morning, connecting with trains at Munfordsville for Bowlinggreen; also a train will leave for Lebanon at 10 o'clock this morning.

REMOVAL OF ARMY STORES.—An order has been issued by General Buell for the removal of supplies for the army of the Ohio from this city to Lebanon.

noon, Capt. Will. H. Fagan's company of the 34th Kentucky Volunteers, was presented, with a beautiful and costly flag, which was gotten up for them by several ladies of the Tenth and some of the First Ward.

The ceremonies took place at the residence of the Captain, on Jefferson street, above Hancock. A large and enthusiastic crowd was in attendance. Several young ladies sang the "Star Spangled Banner"—a brass band who volunteered their services on the occasion, played some national airs.

Mr. W. G. Reesor, on the part of the ladies, presented the flag, accompanied by a few able and patriotic remarks. Capt. Fagan received it in a like manner, after which the gallant boys gave three times three cheers for the ladies from whose generous hearts and hands they had been made the recipients of the emblem of liberty and Union. The crowd dispersed while the band played "Columbia, gem of the Ocean."

SHOCKING REBEL OUTRAGE.—While Bragg's army was at Glasgow, Mr. T. T. Tabb, a citizen of Gallatin, Tennessee, set out from Nashville for this place, but was unfortunately caught by Bragg's forces near the Tennessee line, and conducted to the army at Glasgow. Mr. Tabb's family, consisting of his wife and two interesting little daughters, accompanied him.

After Mrs. Tabb reached Glasgow, she was persuaded by the rebels to return home to Gallatin. She went, but not till they had assured her that her husband would not be harmed. No sooner had she gone than Mr. Tabb was led out, tied to a tree and shot.

This foul atrocity stinks to heaven. It is the basest, cruelest murder we have been called on to record. Without a crime, but the deepest abhorrence of treason, poor Tabb died a martyr to his cause, and at the hands of the ruthless traitor and scoundrel, Braxton Bragg.

Capt. Harry Blackstone, who went out as conductor of an extra train, loaded with soldiers, on Monday night, after proceeding some three miles beyond Muldraugh's hill, stopped the cars to reconnoiter the damage done a cow-pit. He proceeded some distance beyond towards Elizabethtown, and was captured by Capt. Matthews and another rebel officer. They demanded of him, while they held a pistol at his head, to tell how many Federal soldiers were on the train and whether it was safe for them to go and take the engine. Blackstone replied that they could go and take it if they wanted to. They then started towards the train taking Mr. B. with them.

The advance guard seeing the rebels, in company with Blackstone, approached and took them prisoners. They were taken to Elizabethtown, and probably reached our city last night.

GRAND LODGE OF KENTUCKY.—A sufficient number of delegates having appeared, on yesterday, at four o'clock, the Grand Lodge was opened, in ample form, and the Throne of Grace was addressed by the Most Reverend Grand Chaplain, Hiram A. Hunter. No business of importance was transacted.

At five o'clock it adjourned to meet at eight o'clock this morning. Among the distinguished brethren present we notice Past Grand Masters Todd, Swigert and Wilson, Grand Master Bassett and Grand Treasurer Hodges. But the places of Past Grand Masters Ware and Wingate are vacant; they having been called to attend the Grand Lodge above. Their deaths have created a void in the Grand Lodge that will take long years to fill. Their deaths will be noticed in an appropriate manner by the Grand Lodge.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL.—This central hotel has recently been thoroughly refitted and furnished by Mr. T. A. Harrow, the popular proprietor. Situated on the corner of Fourth and Main streets, it is in the very center of business. Opposite the depot of the omnibus line for the Nashville and Jeffersonville railroads—close to the river landing, and near all places of amusements, the National Hotel has peculiar advantages. The house is admirably kept, and its facilities extended and improved. Col. Harrow has grown in popularity, as the spacious rooms of the establishment will testify. Terms—$2 per day, as will be seen by reference to his card in this morning's paper.

This is a season of drought. The ground is not only dry, but it is crusted and baked. Many farmers who are waiting the long promised rain—despairing almost—have broken up their ground, sown their seed as best they could, and have taken the chances of the season. It does not, hence, argue that crops will be short next summer. The autumn has been open, mild and beautiful, notwithstanding the general drought, and, thus far, there has been but little frost.

There should be some named depository for the straying littleurchins, wandering beyond their mothers' apron-strings, get lost in the labyrinth of the streets. If it were generally known that there was such a place of rendezvous, those finding lost children would freely take them there, and mothers, half frantic, would rush to meet them. How much better the itinerant cry of "A little boy lost," on the corners of the street throughout the city.

Col. Curran Pope, who was reported slightly wounded at Perryville, was quite seriously hurt, and is confined to his bed in Louisville, Kentucky. The wound is in the shoulder and arm, and is a painful one. So painful is his wound, that the doctor deemed it advisable not to permit him to be moved. His friends will be glad to learn that he is receiving the kindest attentions, and that ere long he will be sufficiently recovered to come home.

Sinon Ginnip and C. O. Bradshaw were yesterday arrested, on a warrant sworn out by J. R. Hughes of Lebanon, on a charge of stealing a negro man (Robert), the property of the said Hughes. The former is said to be an ex-colored, and the latter a chaplain. They had staid all night with Hughes, and rewarded his hospitality by this act. They were arrested by officers Deaugh and Edgington.

The Democratic majority in Indiana will be near 100,000.

gratified to learn that a company of gentlemen from Christian county, are about erecting on the corner of Main and Tenth streets, an elegant and commodious tobacco warehouse. Coming as they do from the very heart of the tobacco growing district, possessing the confidence of all who know them, as gentlemen of sterling integrity and large experience as business men, the new house must exert great influence upon the trade of Louisville, bringing her more of the Kentucky staple than has yet found its way into our market.

Specifications and plans of the new building can be seen at the office of Messrs. Stancliffe and Volgers. Builders will find it to their interest to call at an early day on the architects, examine their plans and specifications, and submit their propositions for the job, as we understand the building will be put through with all possible dispatch, so as to be ready for the incoming crop.

A young man who has been twice captured by Morgan and paroled, and who knew him well, states that Monday night in Elizabethtown, he slept in the same hotel with him, and in the same room with two of his officers. He states that Morgan's forces were three hours in passing through the town—that the troops which went down from this city Monday night, could easily have captured him, his men having gone ahead of him, but they stopped two miles this side of the town. As soon as he heard of their arrival, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, he left town. Some of his friends wanted him to go to Munfordsville, but he thought it might be too hot for him. His force was a full brigade of about 2,500 or 3,000 men, all well dressed and splendidly mounted. Had his presence in the town been known to our men, he could have been captured in the hotel—and it might have been known had they not stopped where they did.

OUTRAGE.—Monday afternoon, two soldiers got into a fight in O'Neill's alley. One of them, Tom Young, had been discharged from the Provost Guard. The other, Anthony Welsh, belonged to some regiment in this vicinity. Welsh, in the course of the fight, hit off a large portion of one of Young's ears. He was arrested by officer Gilchrist, but put himself on his dignity as a soldier, and rather than have any difficulty with him, the officer turned him over to the military. Instead of committing him to prison, he was taken to the Barracks. By the laws of Kentucky, this offense is punishable with confinement in the penitentiary, and the laws should be enforced upon soldiers as well as civilians.

We have heard it very gravely asserted within the last fortnight, by earnest seceders, that gold is more abundant now in the South than it was ever known to be, and that it commanded only ten per cent premium over Confederate scrip. The Richmond Whig of October 10th, in its financial article, quotes gold and silver at 120 to 110 per cent premium, and in demand. Which knows best, the Louisville sympathizer or the Richmond Whig?

GRAND CHAPTER.—This body adjourned last night, having transacted all the business before it. The Grand Treasurer, A. G. Hodges, reported a balance in his hands of $873 23, and that the Grand Chapter had investments amounting to $6,773 29. Appropriate resolutions were adopted in relation to the death of Past Grand High Priestess Henry Wingate and Thos. Ware, who had died since the last meeting of the Grand Chapter.

We are indebted to the publisher, G. P. Putnam, for the monthly edition of the "Rebellion Record"—a diary of American events. This is one of the most useful and complete publications of the day, and should find a place in every household. It costs fifty cents a number. When complete, it will give such general and useful history of the present rebellion as cannot be found in any other publication extant.

A CHANCE FOR ALL.—Col. A. J. Alexander wants to enlist one company more of picked men for the Thirty-sixth Kentucky Mounted Infantry within ten days. As no officer for the company has been designated, they can choose all their own officers from the members of the company. Call at his recruiting office, on the south side of Main street, near First.

Gen. Buell's men in the city last night, who report that Gen. Buell's army is returning towards Lebanon. If this is so, we presume the pursuit of Bragg has been given up. Others state that his intention is to pursue into Tennessee. Both reports may be correct. He may intend to go direct to Nashville, and advance into East Tennessee from that point.

Morgan's men at Fowler's Crossing, attempted to cut the telegraph wire, but failing to cut it, doubled the wire and broke it with a rock. They dropped a new deck of cards at this point, which were found by Conductor Sweeney. It is a pity they lost the pack of cards, as such amusement as the cards furnish them, is now the best moments of their lives.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 58.—It will be seen, by reference to our columns elsewhere, that, by order of Gen. Buell, passes will be required hereafter of persons leaving the city, except on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, and the ferries and pontoon bridge. Private citizens are not required to procure passes. Soldiers will not be allowed cross over either without passes.

We learn that a meeting will be held, to-morrow night, at the Rescue Engine House, to nominate a candidate for the Common Council, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of H. C. Caruth. Let there be a full turn out.

The train, from Lexington, arrived last evening on time. We learn from passengers who came through, that our forces are pouring in there rapidly. The freight train to Frankfort, runs as usual, as does the passenger train.

Dr. Athon, sent to this city by Gov. Moreau, to inquire into the condition of Indiana sick and wounded, reports very unfavorably as to the hospitals in this city especially Park Barracks.

The Male Grammar Department, First Ward School, will resume to-morrow morning, the 23d inst., at the church on Walnut, above Campbell street.

Two soldiers had a "cut-to" on Preston street, between Market and Jefferson streets, yesterday afternoon. Neither were hurt much.

Gen. Jefferson C. Davis had been released from arrest, and ordered to report for duty to Gen. Wright at Cincinnati.

to Nashville, can do so, to-day, by taking the packet, this evening, for Owensboro. At that point they will find three comfortable four-horse coaches which run directly through to Nashville. For passage or information apply to D. A. Saxon, agent, at the Galt House, or on board the boat.

Col. Daniel W. Lindsey, commanding the 22d Regiment Kentucky Volunteers, returns to his regiment to-day. Friends having letters to send to the members of the regiment, will please leave them at the Clerk's office of the National Hotel by one o'clock P.M., marked, "In care of Col. D. W. Lindsey."

The family residence of Mrs. Brooks, opposite Oakland, and near the residence of Rev. Stuart Robinson, was consumed by fire last evening. Most of the furniture was saved through the exertions of soldiers and citizens residing near the houses. The house of Mr. Robinson was not injured.

Little Willie Dix, who was hurt day before yesterday, by being run over with a slide on Seventh street, was improving last evening. Though no bones were broken, his body is bruised in twenty-five or thirty different places.

A new, black leather valise was found on Main street, last evening, open, containing a lady's dress and cape. It can be found at the residence of policeman Chas. Orington, on Second street, near Broadway.

The train from Frankfort brought down several of Morgan's men, prisoners, last night. Among them was George Walker, who is well known in this city.

The Knickerbocker for November is before us. It is the second number of the new series. We shall be able to speak of its contents hereafter.

John Morgan's men caught Mr. Hodgekins, road master on the Lebanon Branch road; and after keeping him a short time, released him.

HEADQUARTERS, LOUISVILLE, KY., Louisville, Oct. 22, 1862. Special Orders No. 58.

I. Permits or passes will not be required hereafter of persons leaving the city, except on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and the ferries and pontoon bridge. Private citizens will not be required to procure passes over the ferries and pontoon bridge. No officers or soldiers will be allowed to pass either without passes.

By command of Brig. Gen. Buell, A. C. SENEKER, A. A. G.

Local Notices.

To Whom it may Concern.

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 10th, 1862.

The public are warned against purchasing animals from any soldier, wagon-master, or teamster, or other person in the service of the Government, who may be found offering for sale, or otherwise disposing of, any animals belonging to the Government, or animals captured by the United States forces, or carried on, in this section of the country, to a criminal extent. Parties have been found to have sold, or offered for sale, animals belonging to the Government, and it is the duty of the Government to protect its property, and to prevent such sales. It is therefore ordered, that any person who shall be found selling, or offering for sale, any animals belonging to the Government, or animals captured by the United States forces, or carried on, in this section of the country, to a criminal extent, shall be liable to arrest, and to be proceeded against as a felon, and to be punished accordingly. It is further ordered, that any person who shall be found selling, or offering for sale, any animals belonging to the Government, or animals captured by the United States forces, or carried on, in this section of the country, to a criminal extent, shall be liable to arrest, and to be proceeded against as a felon, and to be punished accordingly. It is further ordered, that any person who shall be found selling, or offering for sale, any animals belonging to the Government, or animals captured by the United States forces, or carried on, in this section of the country, to a criminal extent, shall be liable to arrest, and to be proceeded against as a felon, and to be punished accordingly.

Proclamation by the Governor.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

To the Sheriff of the counties of Christian, Henderson, Daviess, Muhlenberg, Ohio, Hancock, Breckinridge, Butler, Grayson and Meade, counties of the Second Congressional District.

WHEREAS, James S. Jackson, member of Congress elected from the Second Congressional District, has resigned his said office.

Now, therefore, I, James F. Robinson, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby direct that an election be held in said counties at the several places of voting therein, authorized by law, on Monday, the 27th day of October, 1862, for the election of a member of Congress from said district, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the said James S. Jackson; and that you cause polls to be opened in your said counties and precincts accordingly, and proceed to conduct and make due return of said election, in the mode and manner prescribed by law.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be hereunto affixed, at the City of Louisville, this 10th day of September, A. D. 1862, and in the 21st year of the Commonwealth.

J. F. ROBINSON.

By the Governor:
D. C. WICKLIFF, Secretary of State.
